Reunion

Childhood memories, the good old days,
The past made us who we are.
So many questions for smiling faces,
As we gather from near and far.

How many years has it really been?
You haven't changed for me.
The eyes, the smile, the way you laugh
Can't hide the old you I see.

Where do you live? What did you become?
Have you had a happy life?
It's hard to believe we're standing here
To introduce our husband or wife.

What ever happened to "what's his name?"
Do you remember him ... and her?
Out come the yearbooks and photographs.
We're back where we once were.

Turn the pages...Go back in time.
The years seem to melt away.
Memories of old dreams flood our minds.
We have so many things to say.

A camera to capture the youth reborn
Can't convey the energy here.
We talk non stop, we laugh and hug,
As we journey back through each year.

Life is a journey for girls and boys.
It's a road shaped by women and men.
You're part of me and I'm part of you.
I'm glad our paths crossed again.

The time has flown and we must part.
I wish we could stay some more.
Let's treasure this time and keep in touch,
'Til we meet at Heaven's door.
