Beginning University Successfully (BUS) Readiness Checklist

The Urban and InneCity Studies Program (UIC) would like to assist you in achieving academic success in the Beginning University Successfully (BUS) Program at the University of Winnipeg. However, finding the appropriate program and determining whether it is the right time in your life to pursue education is crucial to your overall academic success. Eligible students should apply with the Urban and InneCity Studies BUS program only when they have done adequate research on our mature university entrance program and are prepared to commit to the demands of the BUS curriculum.

Before you submit your application form, please take a few minutes to review the Academic Readiness Checklist & KHF NOL V W , I \ R X D Q V Z H U ' Q R μ W R D Q \ R I W K H best time to begin your academic studies, and you should contact the UIC office (988.7196) to discuss areas of concern with our Academic Coordinator.

- I am in a place in my life where I have physical, emotional, mental, and financial stability.
- I have encouragement and a support system to pursue academic studies.
- I am able to gather all original documents required for admission at U of W.
- I am proficient in reading, writing, and speaking English.
- I have basic computer skills ie. Microsoft Word
- I am able to dedicate approximately 9 to 12 hours a week to my course; which will include attending classes and completing assigned readings and homework.
- I am willing to work as a partner with the UIC office towards my academic goals; this includes but is not limited to: obtaining a student card and U of W email address for identification, as well as reading and responding to materials sent from the University by mail or email.
- I am willing to work as a partner with my professors towards my academic goals; this includes but is not limited to: attending classes regularly and arriving on time; taking effective notes in class; participating in class discussions; utilizing the tutor that is available and to review my work prior to submission; and being respectful to my fellow classmates and professors.
- I will take responsibility to inform my professors of my absences and any difficulties that may affect my attendance in class. If I have difficulties in meeting a deadline, I will contact my professor in advance of the due date to discuss alternative options.
