9. Regulations, Policies, and Academic Integrity. Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the Regulations and Policies found in the University Academic Calendar. Particular attention should be given to subsections 8 (Student Discipline), 9 (Senate Appeals), and 10 (Grade Appeals).

Please consider seriously the importance of maintaining academic integrity, and the potential consequences of engaging in plagiarism, cheating, and other forms of academic misconduct. Even unintentional plagiarism is a form of academic misconduct. Similarly, uploading essays and other assignments to essay vendor or trader sites (filesharing sites that are known providers of essays for use by others who submit them to instructors as their own work) is a form of misconduct, as it involves aiding and abetting plagiarism.

More detailed information can be found in an updated and expanded U of Winnipeg library site outlining principles of Academic Integrity and in the Academic Misconduct Policy and Procedures.

Concerning plagiarism, cheating, and other academic misconduct, please note that as a general rule a penalty of zero or "F" will be the grade recommended by the DS/WGS Departmental Review Committee

12. Respectful Learning Environment. All students, faculty, and staff have the right to participate, learn, and work in an environment that is free of harassment and discrimination.

December 23, 2024 through January 1, 2025
February 17, 2025 (Louis Riel Day)
April 18, 2025 (Good Friday)

Fall mid-term reading week is October 14-18, 2024.

Winter mid-term reading week is February 17-21, 2025.

17. Students may choose not to attend classes or write examinations on holydays of their religion, but they must notify their instructors at least two weeks in advance. Instructors will then provide opportunity for students to make up work or examinations without penalty. A list of religious holidays can be found in the Academic Calendar.

18. Accessibility Services: Students with documented disabilities, temporary or chronic medical conditions, requiring academic accommodations for tests/exams (e.g., private space) or during lectures/laboratories (e.g., access to volunteer note-takers) are encouraged to contact Accessibility Services (AS) at 204.786.9771 or email accessibility@uwinnipeg.ca to discuss appropriate options. All information about a student's disability or medical condition remains confidential.

19. Indigenous students seeking additional supports, academic or other, are encouraged to contact the Aboriginal Student Services Centre (ASSC). The ASSC offers a variety of support services, and was created to maintain a safe, educational, and culturally sensitive environment for all Indigenous students (First Nations, Métis and Inuit) as they pursue their academic studies at The University of Winnipeg.

20. Attendance. Please refer to the Regulations and Policies section of the Course Calendar, paragraph 3a which reads in part: "Students are expected to be regular in their attendance at lectures and in the completion of work required in each course. Absence may be excused by instructors on the grounds of illness, physical disability, or adverse domestic circumstances. The instructor may require a medical
